Re: Certification of FYG Made OEM Quality Spare Parts for Auto Glass Replacement

Fuyao Glass Industry Group Co. Ltd,(Briefly "FYG") was established in 1987 in People's Republic of China, dedicating in the production and sales of Automotive Safety Glass to serve OEM(Original Equipment Manufacturing) and ARG (Automotive Replacement Glass) business.

After 20 years of business development, focusing on the improvement of technology, Quality and Efficiency by working with OEM customers, FYG has already become one of top 5 manufacturers in the worldwide automotive safety glass industry.

FYG supplies automotive glasses to major OEM customers including GM, Ford, Chrysler, Volkswagen, Volvo, PSA, Toyota, Honda, Suzuki, Nissan, Mitsubishi, Hyundai and or their associate companies, in the year of 2006, there were 24million pieces of FYG products installed onto 6 million new passenger cars and commercial vehicles worldwide.

FYG's quality management system has been well established maintained to ensure the products and service provided always meet customer satisfaction. The system has received ISO14000, VDA6.1 TSO16949 certificates; all products meet with all renowned International safety standard and FYG's obtained certificates of worldwide acceptance in major countries including DOT and ECE. in 2000, FYG received Gold World Excellence Award from Ford Motor Company.

FYG is pleased to certify that FYG maintains same standards to qualify suppliers and raw materials including Float Glass and Interlayer for both OEM and ARG; uses same production and processing equipments at same factory for both OEM and ARG; applies same quality control and testing system; there is no difference between OEM and ARG products except logo, OEM bears vehicle's brand name, ARG does not.
